

I would ask that you please reconsider preempting out Indiana telephone privacy law. Since my wife and I signed up we have easily seen and 80% reduction in nuisance phone calls. For example, although my wife and I live in apartment we would in the past routinely receive calls asking us to buy carpet or to subscribe to a lawn care service. I would just as soon not go back to listening to that annoying ring. Thank you for your consideration of this request.